Description:	The program is intended to introduce students to the early childhood sector and discover what a career in early childhood may look like. This allows students to view an early childhood setting, interact with children, and gain real-life experience. It also offers students a range of experiences, including theoretical and practical tasks that can make up a typical day in an early childhood service. The program also focuses on reflective practice both for their own personal reflections and supporting students to consider what the play and learning of children look like. Attending staff: P.Henson, L.Roma
